TWO MEN DEAD FROM INCENDIARY FIRE.
By Associated Press.
New York, Nov. 12.—Two men were burned to death last night in a fire which destroyed Week's hotel at Port Chester, both bricklayers. They were William O'Brien, of Brooklyn, and William Kane, of Rahway, N. J. These with Mrs. Weeks, the proprietress, her little daughter and her aged father, were the only occupants of the hotel.
They were rescued when almost suffocated by the smoke. The fire is believed to have been of incendiary origin.

ALSO HER RUBBERS.
By Associated Press.
Norwalk, O., Nov. 13.—Miss Eva Latham, twenty years old, daughter of William Latham, and popular in society, disappeared from her home some time last night.
This morning her parents found a note in her hand writing saying:
"You will find my body in the lower reservoir."
Search along the bank of the city's lower reservoir resulted in finding Miss Latham's shawl and rubber overshoes and woman's foot prints leading into the water.
City firemen and police are now dragging the reservoir for the body.

FOUND INSENSIBLE
Police Authorities Believe Him to Be a Victim of Thugs.
By Associated Press.
New York, Nov. 13.—Crazed as a result of a blow on the head probably dealt with a black jack wielded by a hold-up man, a young man believed to be Driscoll, of Waterford, Conn., is a raving maniac at Bellevue hospital. His skull was crushed by the blow and his condition is believed to be critical. The victim is about 21 years old.
Driscoll was found lying on the sidewalk at 160th street and Amster-dame avenue this morning. An ambulance surgeon found a long wound above and behind the right ear, suggesting that the man had been struck by a thug. It was thought at the time that Driscoll was not seriously hurt, as he responded quickly to treatment and after he had recovered consciousness seemed little the worse for his experience. When he was taken to a police station to give the officers what assistance he could in finding out how he received his injuries, however, he hegan to shout and struggle in a manner that left no doubt that the blow had affected his brain. All efforts to calm him proved futile and it became necessary to remove him to Bellevue.
REBATING TRIAL
OPENS TOMORROW.
By Associated Press.
New York, Nov. 13.—The trial of the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad company and the American Sugar Refining company, charged with granting and receiving rebates, on sugar shipments, which was to have been begun in the United States circuit court here today was adjourned until tomorrow.
The New York Central and the Sugar Refining company will be tried on two of the 13 indictments still pending against them. The New York Central has already faced one of the federal courts and jury on an indictment alleging a granting of rebates on sugar shipments to Detroit which resulted in a conviction and the imposition of fines exceeding a hundred in a conviction. This case has been appealed.

On the Question of Increase

CHANGE IN ATTITUDE
From Talkativeness to Reti-cent on the Part of Officials.
Latest Outlook Points to Amicable Settlement in Erie Affairs.
By Associated Press.
New York, Nov. 13.—The Times today says that the labor situation on the New York Central looked threatening last night. A deadlock, with much uglier feeling, the paper declares, has been reached on that road.
The Times says that members of the board of adjustment, which body has been treating with the New York Central officials, complained of the slowness of the latter and said they were tired of the situation.
There was a change yesterday in the attitude of representatives of the railroad, who are at the Broadway Central Hotel regarding the outlook on the Erie. Hitherto they were willing to talk freely, but yesterday comment was avoided.
J. J. Hanrahan, grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen would not say a single word on the situation. The change of attitude gave rise to reports that there was hope for peace on the Erie and that there would be developments on this line soon.
Grand Chief Stone of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers was at the Broadway Central hotel twice and talked with some of the committees.
He gave it as his opinion that there would not be a strike of either engineers or firemen. He had practically finished his mission here and would soon leave for home, he added.
In Session Today.
New York, Nov. 13.—The committees of the firemen of the New York Central and the New York, New Haven and Hartford roads went into conference with officials of the two roads at the Grand Central depot today. The committees were headed by Grand Master John J. Hanrahan, of the firemen's organization. Before going into conference the members of the firemen's committee had a talk with Grand Chief Stone of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. Mr.
Stone said that he was acting only in an advisory capacity.
Mr. Stone will have a conference with committees representing the engineers of the Erie, New York Central, and New York, New Haven and Hartford roads, later in the day and probably will leave for his home in Cleveland to-night.
Plan Presented.
The committees representing the firemen of the New York Central and New York, New Haven & Hartford railroads are in conference with the officials of those roads to accept a proposition made by the officials concerning the employment of firemen, as helpers on electric locomotives. The plan provides that a run of 100 miles should constitute a days work for the next six months. If the company desires to extend the run then, the matter will again be taken up in conference. Within two or three days another conference will be held, over the firemen's request for an increase in wages and as to the hours of work of which they have requested a reduction.
Mileage Basis.
General Manager A. H. Smith, of the New York Central road said that he believed that agreement as to wages, would be reached at the next conference. A committee of engineers of the Erie railroad met at the Broadway Central hotel today and agreed to present to Assistant General Manager Stone, of the Erie a request that the Erie engineers be paid on a mileage basis. The committee expects to meet Mr. Stone at the Erie offices about 3 p. m. today.

FATHER RELIEVED
IN HIS SON'S TRIAL.
By Associated Press.
St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 13.—The federal grand jury will convene tomorrow, and, according to information just made known at the federal building, the investigation into shortage of $61, 500 in the St. Louis sub-treasury is the first matter to be taken up. The shortage was traced to the department of receiving teller, D. P. Dyer, Jr., whose father, Col. D. P. Dyer, is the United States district attorney.
Because of the relationship, Col. Dyer has been temporarily relieved from taking part in the sub-treasury investigation at his own case, and the government has appointed F. W. Lehman to act instead.

By Associated Press.
Cleveland, Nov. 13.—J. R. Zimmerman plead guilty to the charge of conspiring to wreck a National bank in the federal court here today, and was sentenced to serve two years in the penitentiary and to pay a fine of $10,000.
Zimmerman was the chairman of the board of directors of the Wooster, Ohio, National bank which failed about two years ago.
When the Wooster bank collapsed its two principal officials, J. R. Zimmerman and L. P. Ohlinger disappeared.
They were later apprehended by government secret service men in British Columbia. Ohlinger pleaded guilty and was sentenced to serve seven years in the Ohio penitentiary. He was brought here to testify against Zimmerman when the latter's trial opened today. Zimmerman, however, changed his mind at the last moment and entered a plea of guilty. Ohlinger was formerly a member of congress representing the 7th Ohio district. He was also at one time collector of internal revenue of this district.

mattresses had been ripped open and beds torn apart by the thieves in the search for money which they believed was secreted in the house. The police have never been able to track Mrs.
Green's assailants.
SECRETARY SHAW
VISITS THE MINT.
By Associated Press.
New York City, Nov. 13.—Secretary Shaw of the treasury department was at the sub-treasury today. It was understood in Wall street that the purpose of the secretary's visit to the financial district was to consider the money situation with a view to determining whether government aid may be necessary.
"No Change," Says Shaw.
Secretary Shaw said that he had discovered no material change in the financial situation since Saturday, when he said that he would not take any measures of relief for the money market under conditions then prevailing. He said that he still adhered to that determination. His chief business in New York, he said, had to do with matters concerning the custom house. He expects to return to Washington tonight.

By Associated Press.
San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 13.—The Call today says:
It became known in federal circles yesterday that recent locations of land in Kern county by agents of the Standard Oil company have been made the subject of investigation by government officials. As a result it is asserted indictments will follow. The land was taken up by the petroleum combine ostensibly for the gypsum deposits but in reality for oil purposes.
That the character of the land had been carefully studied is shown by the fact that a flowing oil well has already been developed.
The inquiry is being made through the office of United States Attorney Devlin, of San Francisco. Federal agents have been at work for several weeks in Kern county. From their preliminary report it is believed will warrant indictment on the part of the federal grand jury.
The evidence gathered by these agents will be placed in the hands of U. S. Attorney Devlin, who will in turn forward it to Washington to the attorney general.

Philadelphia, Nov. 13.—The national congress on "Uniform Divorce Laws," held its second meeting in this city today. The first meeting was held at Washington nine months ago at which time an adjournment was taken to permit a committee to draft a bill on uniform divorce laws to be presented to the legislature of all the states.
The bill drawn by the committee names six causes for which divorces can be granted. They are infidelity, felony, bigamy, desertion, habitual drunkenness and intolerable cruelty.
The committee recommends that the various legislatures be asked to agree on a period of residence, before application may be made for divorce. It is expected by the committee that this recommendation if adopted by all the states, will decrease the number of migratory divorces.

Bowsher. An excellent literary program was rendered last Friday evening, and an equally good one has been arranged for the next meeting. The question for debate next Friday evening is: "Resolved, That Foreign Immigration is a blessing to the United States." It is with pleasure that is announced the coming marriage of two of Shawnee's popular young people, Miss Flora Mayer to David Carey. The former is making her home with J. O.
Breese and family while the latter is one of the promising young men of the Helsel community. The happy event will take place the latter part of the month, after which they will make their home for a while with the groom's parents.

Sophia Umbaugh, of Lima, spent Sunday at the home of her father J. A.
Umbaugh and family.

The seventy-nine inmates that are being cared for in the Allen County Children's home at present, are practically quarantined with chicken-pox.
None of them require the services of a physician, but prove themselves quite a charge to those who have the care of them.

Chas. Mayer, who was injured a couple of weeks ago is improving nicely at the Lima hospital but it will be some time yet before he will be able to be about.

The meeting of the Progressive Bachre club at the home of Mrs. Clyde Moore has been postponed until Nov.
23rd.

NEW JEWELRY STORE

Will Be Thrown Open to the Public, Thursday Afternoon

BY WELL KNOWN MAN.

J. W. Puetz Joins the Ranks of the Worthy Merchants of Lima.

On next Thursday afternoon will be inaugurated a new jewelry store which will take its place among the Lima mercantile houses as one of the best.
On that date, J. W. Puetz, for many years identified with the jewelry business of this city, will throw open, for public approval, his artistic store at 110 west Market street, in the building lately remodeled by the Lima Trust company.

The new store is a delightful place.
Everything new and sparkling, and the entire stock new and complete.
Full lines of watches, cut glass, diamonds, silverware, novelties and hand-painted china are in abundance; truly an ideal shopping point for the Christmas season.

The furnishings are in oak and arranged with a view to the convenience to the customer.

In the front of the store are located, on the west side, the diamond room, on the east side, the watch and jewelry repair and engraving room. The lighting throughout, is excellent.

There is also, in connection, an optical department, where nose-glasses and spectacles are fitted by an expert who understands his business thoroughly.

Altogether, Mr. Puetz is to be most heartily congratulated on the possession of an ideal jewelry store and there is no doubt but that the public, generally, will think likewise after the opening, next Thursday afternoon.

HIGH OFFICIALS
Of C. H. & D. Were in the City Today.

As noted in the Times-Democrat last evening, the annual inspection tour of the high officials of the C. H. & D. included Lima today.

The party touring in a special car reached here about 10:30 o'clock and left at 11:55 as second No. 6. The high officials were taken out by Engineer Claude Gamble, who holds the time honors of the past on the Lima-Toledo division, having carried a party between the two cities a distance of 72 miles in 72 minutes, including stops.

The inspection party included Receiver Judson Harmon, General Superintendent Gordon, Chief Engineer Wilson, Superintendent of Telegraph Orbison, Master Mechanic A. C. Hinc-ley, Division Superintendent T. A.
Sweeney, of Dayton, and officials here, who joined the party. An hour was spent in the yards and shops at this point.

PATHETIC STORY OF AMERICAN GIRL.

By Associated Press.
Paris, Nov. 13.—Mary Weidenbaum, sixteen years old and claiming to be the daughter of a jeweler of 201 Madison street, New York, was found wandering demented in the streets here last night and was taken to a hospital. She told an incoherent story from which it was gathered that she was on her way to New York from Jaffa, Palestine, where she had been living with her uncle. Consul General Mason is trying to communi-

ERIE EXPRESS
BADLY WRECKED.

By Associated Press.
Scranton, Pa., Nov. 13.—The fast express on the Erie railroad leaving Carbondale north bound, in the forenoon, crashed into a Delaware and Hudson Coal train standing on a siding near Carbondale. Fireman Taylor, of the coal train is seriously injured and not expected to live. Both engines were completely demolished. The passengers were shaken up but none were seriously hurt. The engineers of both trains escaped injury by jumping.

WONDERS OF THE TELEGRAPH.

The women who have tried to convince an old hen that setting was not best for her will be interested in learning that others have also failed.
A barn in Cherryvale got on fire. In plain sight of the people, there sat a hen on a nest. The flames grew nearer, but when the firemen turned his nose on her to dislodge her, she pecked at the hose in a mean tempered way, as if she thought, "Here comes some one again trying to get me off my eggs." She refused to be moved, and the flames swept over her, and she perished. But like all setting hens, she persisted to the last.

Mary J. Donahue, who lives on a farm near Leavenworth, has filed suit in the circuit court at St. Joe against the street railway company for $10,000 damages on account of the death of her daughter, May Doyle. This is why this item is classed among the wonderful news of the day: May Doyle was a disolute character, a most notorious woman, no good to any one, and that she is gone her mother values her life at $10,000!

For some time there has been a person in Buxton, Kansas, a school teacher, over whose sex there has been a constant wrangle. Is she a woman or is he a man? were common questions, and the person who gave the name of Arthur Baker, finally got tired of the curiosity and to prove that he was a man sent for his wife and child.
And still there are some in Buxton who say he could not look so much like a woman and be a man; that surely she is a woman.

The women have an original idea of meting punishment. They didn't like a Mrs. Hattie Lowry, of East Sandy, Pa., so they took her from her home to the woods where they put stove polish all over her body, then poured on molasses and then added feathers.
It is not certain whether they wanted to make of her a cook stove, fudge, or a sofa cushion.

The practical joker got his at Newark, N. J. An old man named Sachs, had always let it be known that he was looking for a wife, so the practical joker put on a wig and was introduced. Sachs was easy, and proposed.
Just as the "woman" accepted, "she" pulled off her wig and skirts. Sachs had the joker arrested and the courts fined him $25 for annoying the old man.

Louis Auer, in Milwaukee, in order to fight threatening race suicide and the depopulation of the world, not only builds flats particularly suited to families with children, but gives a flat of $30 a month rent, free for a month to any woman who has a baby born in it. Still, as men pay the rent, and the women have the babies, this may not result in any great increase.

Dr. Friedrich, city health officer of Cleveland, says sleeping with a dog, one with a bounteous coat of hair, will relieve, if it will not cure, rheumatism.
He says that the warmth which comes from the dog's body and its coat of hair causes a greater flow of blood in the affected member, but the dog must be close to the seat of pain, otherwise sleeping with a dozen pups will not help any.

Arthur J. Baker taught school at Buxton, Kas. The contention was made that he is a woman. The talk became fierce gossip that grew and grew, until the school board decided that Baker must prove he is a man.
He sent for his wife and child, and still there were doubters. He then went to a physician and secured a signed statement that he is a man, and as a result the school board has apologized and says no further investigation will be required. Baker has little hands and feet, a small mouth and a high soprano voice. He is built like a woman, and wherever he goes the gossip's claim that here is a woman masquerading in man's clothes. He used to regard the talk as a joke, but now that he has a child before him, he has serious duties of life before him, he has become annoyed, and says that hereafter whenever he goes among strangers he will take the physician's statement with him, and show it to doubters.

Why didn't some novelist think of this plot for a love story before it got into the telegraph? Miss Lillie Smith, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is an expert box maker and can earn $19 a week. She fell madly in love with Thaddeus Williams, a tea merchant in Brooklyn, and he seemed to be in love with her.
They became engaged, but Williams kept postponing the wedding saying he wished to have enough money to retire upon when they were married.

So Lillie Smith boomed his trade by sending him hundreds of customers.
As she went in and out of the store she saw a Miss Platt, who was cashier, and who often handed her notes from Williams. Finally Williams married Lillie Smith, deserted her six hours after marriage, and completely disappeared. It turned out that Miss Platt, the cashier, was Williams' wife. All this happened three years ago and here is where the original idea comes in. During the past two years at 1,500 concerts, balls, and entertainments of various kinds, mostly Masonic, Thaddeus Williams' face has been exhibited on raffle tickets, which Lillie Smith, who says she is wife No. 2, had printed. She states that the raffle is to enable her to get money to prosecute her betrayer, and hopes his features on the raffle tickets may lead to his detection.

AFTER THE FIGHT.

By Associated Press.
Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 13.—The recent political activity of the American Federation of Labor occupied a prominent place in the report of the executive council today, to the twenty-sixth annual convention of the federation, in session here. The report was read by Vice President James Duncan.

While the report did not go into the details of the campaign for the defeat of Speaker Cannon and Congressman Littlefield and other congressional candidates, defined the attitude of the organization toward these candidates.
According to the report, the total sum subscribed for campaign purposes was $8,056.89, the total expenditures $7, 824.11, and the unexpended remainder $222.78. The report stated that a detail report of expenditures is in preparation and will be mailed to all contributors.

WEATHER FORECAST.
Washington, Nov. 13.—For Ohio: Partly cloudy tonight and Wednesday; warmer Wednesday.
Upon another page in this edition of the Times Democrat may be found a most interesting and important article written by Jao. W. Forbing, consulting chemist of Lima College, upon the subject of the condition of the water furnished to Lima by the city water works. Mr. Forbing's analysis of the water shows it to contain so small an amount of deleterious matter as to make it most desirable for domestic use. The solid which is present in the largest percentage is sodium chloride, or common salt, a mineral not unwholesome. It is extremely gratifying to have a statement of the purity of our water supply made by so competent a chemist as Prof. Forbing, and the water consumers will feel more free to use the water liberally for culinary and drinking purposes when they are assured that an analysis shows the solids it contains to be beneficial to the system rather than deleterious to it.
We owe the young people of this country the best example and teaching that we chance to know. That's good advice.—Take Hollister's

THE STAGE.
The Orphium has a great bill this week of a high class variety which will extend the favor of the already popular play-house to the furthermost parts of Lima.
The bill opens with Paul E. Poole, who is termed an "adept necromanti-que." In this act several clever and mysterious card tricks are introduced.
Mahoney & Lake present a knock-about singing and talking sketch. The LaFesses have one of the best contortion acts ever seen at the Orphium. Wesson, Walters and Wesson present a thoroughly entertaining skit called "A Trip to Washington." The junior member of the firm is a clever young dancer, and his elders are very entertaining in their comedy parts. Miss Keller sings "My Heart's Tonight in Texas" very sweetly. The heavy part of the performance and an act which has been obtained at great expense to the Orphium management is that presented by Herr Schmidt, otherwise known as "the human pillar." Mr.
Schmidt is a remarkably strong man, retaining on his shoulders for several minutes, a huge platform on which a bicycle rider is whirling. The entire weight is said to be close to 1,000 pounds and the feat is really marvelous. The new motion pictures close one of the best vaudeville shows of the season.

The death of General Shafter recalls to mind the visit which that distinguished soldier made to this city, in company with Capt. Stewart M. Brice, who was member of his staff, before the close of the Spanish-American. Gen.
Shafter came to Lima at the invitation of Capt. Brice and was accorded a public reception and banquet by the patriotic citizens of this city. A public meeting was held in the opera house and both he and Captain Brice delivered entertaining addresses describing the campaign before Santiago, where Gen. Shafter was in command of the United States army. The banquet which followed the public meeting was held at the Lima Hotel.

Cleanly woman has an erroneous idea that by scouring the scalp, which re-

Other Police News.
There was but one prisoner arraigned in mayor's court this morning and he was well known there. The victim was Bert Cutlip, charged with being drunk and disorderly and with flourishing a razor in a threatening manner. He was pedantic this morning but it was too late. Mayor Robb had warned him upon former occasions that the work house was staring him in the face and Capt.
Wingate landed him there this afternoon. He has a sentence of $20 and costs and sixty days imprisonment to serve out.
Last night the police apprehended and arrested a man named Wm.
Jones, of Lansing, Mich., who is wanting in that city on the charge of abandoning his family. The authorities of Lansing were notified and the prisoner was taken back to that place today.
A traveling man who frequently "flushed" a roll of bills aggregating over three thousand dollars, and who was sufficiently intoxicated to be easy "picking" for some of the local talent in the crook line, was taken care of by the police last night and this morning his money was returned to him. He gave Capt. Wingate a receipt for the money today but did not even thank him for his kindness.

John Sears, residing at 927 St. had been knocked down and robbed by two or more men who assaulted him as he was walking along the Erie

Main street grocery. The men robbed him of between $22 and $23 in cash assaulted him that he is unable to Eight Hour Law Will Hereafter Be Strictly Enforced

BY THE GOVERNMENT.

Attorney General Moody Issued a Circular Letter

Today

Ordering all United States

Attorneys to Take Notice.

By Associated Press.

Washington, Nov. 13.—Attorney General Moody today issued a circular letter of instructions to United States attorneys regarding prosecutions of the eight hour law in which he says the government is determined upon a strict enforcement of this statute as relating to public works of the United States. All United States attorneys are directed diligently to investigate all complaints which may come to them from any source of violation of the law and upon their own initiative to make investigation if there appears any reasonable ground for suspecting a violation and where sufficient evidence can be secured it must be submitted to a grand jury with a view to securing an indictment.

Mr. O. J. Carlton, a lawyer, of Haverhill, Mass., has been appointed by the attorney general to have special charge of these cases in the department of justice. It is stated that, while up to two or three months ago comparatively few cases of alleged violations of the eight hour law were brought to the attention of the department, during the last ten weeks as many as three hundred alleged violations have been reported. Mr. Carl-ton will act in conjunction with Commissioner Nell, who has furnished much of the evidence upon which the department is now acting.

Kansas City, Nov. 13.—Indictments were returned today by the federal grand jury as follows:

Against Davis H. Kresky, of Kansas City, a freight broker, charged with conspiracy to violate the interstate commerce act in the securing concessions on export shipments of flour, sold by the J. A. Howard Mill company of Wichita, Kas., to A. F.
Roberts and company, of New York, for export to Bristol, Eng., and Leth, Wichita to Kansas City over the Missouri Pacific, from Kansas City to Chicago over the Chicago and Alton, and the Chicago, Milwaukee and St.

Paul railways, and from Chicago to New York over the Nickle Plate line; against W. A. McGowan, agent at Kansas City of the Nickle Plate fast freight line (the New York, Chicago and St. Louis railroad company), for conspiring with Kresky to violate the interstate commerce act in granting concessions on shipments of flour destined from Wichita to the foreign ports named; against Henry S. Harley, of Kansas City, a dealer in cotton seed meal, charged with accepting commissions and rebates on shipments made from Roff, I. T., to Larkio, Mo., and Plano, Texas over the St. Louis and San Francisco, and the Chicago Burlington and Quincy railroads.

LIMA WATER IS PURE

And Good For All Domestic Purposes and for

THE LAST ANALYSIS

Made by Prof. Forbing, a Competent Chemist is Very Flattering.

The citizens of Lima will be pleased to learn that their water works is supplying them with a potable water, A. I. in quality.

The following is an analysis of city water drawn from pipes at Lima College, Oct. 23, 1906:

Figures represent grains per U. S. gallon.
Silica 0.55
Iron and alumina 0.39 Calcium carbonate 10.61 Magnesium sulphate 6.05 Potassium sulphate 0.04 Sodium chloride 11.40 Organic matter 0.39

Total solids 29.43

The ingredients of the water cited above are those common to all natural waters. The water, however, is an interesting one and uncommon. The amount of total solids slightly exceeds the limit or standard set for water to be used for drinking purposes, and in spite of this fact, the Lima water is a pure and wholesome one. The content of sodium chloride (which is ordinary salt) is the interesting feature.
It is high, and to it is due the elevation of the total solids. Ordinarily large quantities of salt in waters, though salt is of course harmless in itself, point to pollution with sewage.
To uphold such an hypothesis there is necessitated a correspondingly high content of organic matter. The organic matter as indicated by careful analysis, is very low and well within the boundary set by authoritative standard. It was a matter of assumption only that the excessive presence of the sodium chloride was due to the fact that the water drains our oil region onto which, for some years, has been pumped. I understand great quantities of salt water. In order to throw some light on the matter, samples were collected at different points along Hog Creek which supplies the city reservoir and subjected to analysis with the following results:

Grains per U. S. gallon.
Pipes at Lima College 1340 Hog Creek, 7 mi. east of Lima 8.97 Hog Creek 1/2 mi. N. of Lafayette 2.00 Hog Creek 3 mi. E. of Lafayette 0.68

The last analysis being from a water draining a territory practically outside the oil belt.

As there is no sewage emptied into the creek between the points considered, these data exclude conclusively a possibility of the large quantity of salt being derived from such a source, and give fair evidence of the oil region being the source of the salt, thus obviating the suspicion which might attach itself to the one abnormal constituent of the Lima water.

At present Lima may pride herself on having pure water. What the water may be in the Spring can be but a matter of conjecture.

Biliousness and Constipation.

For years I was troubled with bil-

ENORMOUS

Size of the New Locomotives of Erie Railroad.

The trio of Mallet Articulated Compound locomotives, recently ordered by the Erie Railroad, will be used as pushers on the grade east of Susquehanna, Pa. and they will form the three largest railroads engines ever constructed in the world.

Locomotives of this type are still a novelty but the few that have been built, though many tons lighter than the Erie whistles, have given such good service as to practically place them at the top as heavy grade helpers.

The American Locomotive Company, which has the task of building them, gives the following dimensions puzzling perhaps to the laymen but eye-openers to the railroaders:

There will be 16 driving wheels, four cylinders, two ahead and two midway of the boiler, which will be over eight feet in diameter at its largest part and will contain 214-inch tubes to the number of 468, each 21 feet long or more than a mile and three-quarters, if joined together.

The driving wheels will bear all the weight of the engine and thereby will be secured the advantage of every pound of the 410,000 pounds weight.
The tender is no parlor plaything of itself. It will carry 8,500 gallons of water and 16 tons of anthracite coal.
In other words, the completed locomotive will be just about twice as big as those seen every day in usual service.

THE STAGE.

"Nettie, the Newsgirl," comes to the Faurot opera house on Thursday night and what is termed a rapid fire play, being filled with quick movements throughout the four acts and three times as many scenes. The story is laid in New York city, and deals with the abduction of a child, by a scheming uncle, and of her restoration to her rightful home, all of which is brought about by herself, as "Nettie, the Newsgirl."

Although There Was Also a Slight Sprinkling of Losses.

GAIN OF ONE POINT

Made By Northern Pacific and Large Fractions by Two Others.

Quotations on Live Stock, Grain, Produce and Provision.

By Associated Press. New York, Nov. 13.—The early business in stocks was of limited extent and small gains were the rule, with a sprinkling of losses. Northern Pacific rose about a point and Louisville and Canadian Pacific large fractions.

Chicago Live Stock. Chicago, Nov. 13.—Cattle estimated receipts 11,000; market slow and steady. Beesves $4.00@7.25; cows and heifers $1.50@5.15; stockers and feeders $2.40@4.50; westerns $3.90@6.10; calves $6.00@7.50.

Sheep—Estimated receipts 25,000; market weak. Sheep $3.75@5.40; lambs $4.60@7.40.

Chicago Grain Market. Chicago, Nov. 13.—Continued small receipts of wheat in the northwest again formed the dominating feature in the Chicago market. Prices were firm because of the small movement and also because of a good demand of cash houses and shorts. Offerings were light December wheat opened unchanged to a share higher at 73 3/4@74 1/4 and sold at 73. On considerable selling by local longs December corn eased off to 41 1/2@42.

December oats were very quiet at 34 1/2.

January provisions opened easy pork at $14.05; lard at $3.37 1/2, and ribs at $7.52 1/4.

Postmaster Robbed. G. W. Fouts, postmaster at River-ton, Ia., nearly lost his life and was robbed of all comfort, according to his letter, which says: "For 20 years I had chronic liver complaint, which led to such a severe case of jaundice that even my finger nails turned yellow; when my doctor prescribed Electric Bitters, which cured me and have kept me well for eleven years. Sure cure for biliousness, neuralgia, weakness and all stomach, liver, kidney and bladder derangements. A wonderful tonic. At H. E. Vorkamp's drug store, 50 cents."

By Associated Press. St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 13.—A west-bound Missouri Pacific passenger train while running at full speed was hurled from the track by spreading rails near Glenwood, 27 miles west of here today, and beyond cuts and bruises all those on board escaped. THE FAIR SEX.

What women are doing, according to the papers: Mrs. Barbara Laver, of Jersey City, keeps ten dogs. Her husband despises dogs and says they sleep on his bed, leave bones in his shoes and when any one calls at the house the uproar made by the ten dogs is disgraceful. But his wife will keep them and he had to pay a fine of ten dollars lately because the dogs were unlicensed. A party of farmers went from Bloomington, Ill., to attend the horse show in Chicago. One of the farmers writes as follows to the Chicago Tribune: A party of us farmers came up from near Bloomington to see a horse show, but we have found out that it is a woman's show, and we are pretty thoroughly disgusted. We spent all day Tuesday, also Monday trying to believe that we were attending a horse show, but we know that it is a woman's show, and that the best dressed woman carries off the prize. Six of our party left for home yesterday. Too many women for them. The rest of the party will leave today. If one wants to go to a horse show he should go to a county fair. "Too much woman" for us. A Chicago woman succeeded in getting a case continued in court, in which she was suing her husband for non-support by proving that she could not appear, as all she had on earth to wear was a pair of pajamas and a summer hat. Her husband had refused to pay for clothes she had bought on the installment plan. The "Daughters of the Revolution" are not satisfied with the way they are treated by the newspapers. Anyway, lately, Daughters indicted the city of Springfield, Mass., with a conference, and in reporting the meeting "the Springfield Republican brought down upon the press the war spirit which the daughters have inherited from their revolutionary ancestors. A high spirited daughter writes to the Republican as follows: "In your issue of Friday you published an article in regard to the recent conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution of Massachusetts, headed 'Local woman causes flurry,' in which there is scarcely a word of truth from beginning to end. We read a great deal of your sense of fair play, and indeed are disposed to credit you with an endeavor to do justice to all, but it would give us much satisfaction to see occasionally a disposition on the part of the press to say a good word for the work that is being done by this society."

P. J. Hennessy With the Buckeyes. Telegrapher P. J. Hennessy, who recently resigned his position on the day trick at the Pennsylvania passenger depot, has entered the service of the Buckeye Pipe Line company, as a telegrapher and will go to Terre Haute, Ind., tomorrow, to assume charge of his new duties there. "Pat" is both an expert telegrapher and a popular man socially and will leave Lima accompanied by the best wishes of a wide circle of friends.

WIRES ARE CROSSED.

St. Joe Star: "Somebody has failed to notice that the wires are badly crossed. The republican campaign book states positively that the cost of living has been reduced, and now comes the first assistant postmaster general with an urgent request for increased salaries for postal clerks on the ground that there has been an increase in the cost of living. The first assistant postmaster general should read up."

A MAN OF LETTERS.

Rare Brevity and Beauty of Lincoln's More Notable Addresses. Nothing would have amazed Mr. Lincoln more than to hear himself called a man of letters, and yet it would be hard to find in all literature anything to excel the brevity and beauty of his address at Gettysburg or the lofty grandeur of his second inaugural. In Europe his style has been called a model for the study and imitation of princes, while in our own country many of his phrases have already passed into the daily speech of mankind.

His gift of putting things simply and clearly was partly the habit of his own clear mind and partly the result of the training he gave himself in days of boyish poverty, when paper and ink were luxuries almost beyond his reach and the words he wished to set down must be the best words and the clearest and shortest to express the ideas he had in view. This training of thought before expression, of knowing exactly what he wished to say before saying it, stood him in good stead all his life, but only the mind of a great man with a lofty soul and a poet's vision, one who had suffered deeply and felt keenly, who carried the burden of a nation on his heart, whose sympathies were as broad and whose kindness was as great as his moral purpose was strong and firm, could have written the deep, forceful, convincing words that fell from his pen in the later years of his life. It was the life he lived, the noble aim that upheld him, as well as the genius with which he was born, that made him one of the greatest writers of our time.—Helen Nicolay in St. Nicholas.

AN ODD DUEL.

It Introduced a Frenchman to the Possibilities of Baseball.

A Frenchman challenged an American to fight. The American, a husky six footer from Yale, who had pitched on the baseball team and stroked the crew, was loath to accept and took the matter as something of a joke. The count pressed his desire for satisfaction, and at last the son of old Eli consented to meet him, stipulating that he should choose his own weapons. Seconds were agreed upon, and the mode of combat chosen by the American was baseball at twenty paces. It was dangerously close range for a man who spent three years twirling in baseball and outdrops over a twelve inch plate and likely to be a pretty accurate shot with a baseball, but the Frenchman was game, and they met on the outskirts of the city at daybreak.

Each was to have three shots, and the count won the toss and thereby the privilege of leading off. Perhaps he had never seen a baseball before, and, at any rate, the man from Yale had no difficulty in dodging the adamant spheres which the son of Belle Franco sent sailing in his direction.

Then the American opened fire. The first ball grazed the Frenchman's shoulder, the second lodged in the pit of his stomach and the third, an in-shoot, caught him full on the point of the chin. He went down and out and never challenged another American citizen.

No Place For Grumblers.

A man who stands on the street corner chewing and spitting, telling how the government should be run, cursing the town, finding fault with his grandmother because she was a woman, claiming that the merchants are a lot of thieves, that the lawyers and newspaper men would skin a man to a finish and a whole lot more, is a nuisance and an abomination. Any town pestered with one or more such worthies would be justified in exercising cow-hide authority on the bosom of their trousers. No one is obliged to live where he is not suited. If things don't suit you go where they will. A growler and a sorehead in a town is an enterprise killer every time.—Macksville (Kan.) Enterprise.

Orange Blossoms.

Much uncertainty exists as to why the orange blossom has been so much worn by brides, but the general opinion seems to be that it was adopted as an emblem of fruitfulness. According to some authorities, the practice has been derived from the Saracens, among whom the orange blossom was regarded as a symbol of a prosperous marriage, a circumstance which is partly to be accounted for by the fact that in the east the orange tree bears ripe fruit and blossoms at the same time.

BALL FIELD STORIES

A Bucket of Paint Helped the Orioles to Capture the National League Pennant—The Importance of a "Color Scheme" in Bunting.

One of the oddest things that ever happened on a ball field took place on the west side grounds, in Chicago, in a game against New York. Anson's men were playing the Giants, and the victory hung in the balance until in the ninth inning, with the score even, Bill Lange faced Joet Mackin and rapped a certain double to center. There were two out, and the crowd rose with a yell of delight when Lange smote the ball, which rolled past Van Halteren.

That ball rolled on and finally disappeared. Van Halteren was on top of it, but instead of picking it up he suddenly threw himself flat on the ground, rammed his right arm into the earth and commenced reaching. Lange meantime kept on. He turned second, raced on to third, gave a look toward and then sprinted for home, scoring the winning run.

The ball had rolled into a hole in the ground from which a post had been pulled that morning, and Van Halteren had been able only to "reach it with the tips of his fingers. The next day the hole was filled in.

Upon what small things the results of baseball depend can be guessed when it is known that a forty-five cent bucket of paint won the National league pennant for Baltimore two years in succession. The men who composed the three times champion Orioles all admit the fact that the bucket of paint had more to do with their pennant winning than anything else.

The facts are these: The Orioles were not hitting. They could not find out why until one day Willie Keeler remarked that the ball when pitched from the pitcher's box was the same color as the center field fence and that the ball was lost to them against the dark background. The players set themselves down to figure it out, and in the end they figured that the reason they were not hitting was because there was a lack of relief in the color scheme of the grounds. The bat boy was sent in a hurry for a pot of white paint and a patch of the fence in center field exactly on a line with the pitcher's box, and the plate was dashed white. The paint made a difference of nearly forty points per man in their batting averages that season, and they won the pennant.

After that the space in center on most of the big league ball grounds was kept clear or painted in some color that would assist the team in its hitting.

The color scheme in baseball is more important than the casual observer would suppose. For instance, the Polo grounds are one of the hardest grounds in the world for an outfielder. Back of the grand stand rises a huge bluff—"Coogan's bluff"—and the bluff is built partly on the side of the hill. Naturally, the shadow of the stand and the bluff lie heavy over the field as far out as second base in the late afternoon, and the outfielders have great difficulty in seeing the ball until it rises out of the shadow and above the sky line. The players learn to judge balls by the way they sound against the bat, but visiting players at the Polo grounds have a hard time judging line drives.

For years the New York players have had the advantage because of the color scheme of their grounds. In center field is a panel of color to relieve the batter's eye and show the ball in relief against it, while to mitigate the effects of the shadow sections of the front of the stand and even the bowlers on the hillside have been painted.

Those mechanical aids for batting are great things. Almost every home team has its grounds arranged for relief in color, so that they can by looking at a certain spot be certain to see the ball. It is not necessary for the ball to rise against the relief background, but it is necessary for the player's eye to be filled with the color, so that when he looks at the ball it stands out in relief against the color which still is imprinted on the retina of his eye.

One of the best hitting pitchers that ever lived, Walter Thornton, who was driven out of baseball because of the personal dislike of an official of the National league to him, had a scheme which worked well and which he claimed aided him in batting. He simply sat and held his fingers tight against his eyes for several minutes before going to bat. Shutting out all light, he claimed, rested his eyes after pitching a hard inning, and he went in to bat with eyes fresh and steady.

And how he did hit them! How he did hit them! Pietro Gladiator Browning tried every treatment possible for his eyes to keep them clear. Smoking a cigarette on the bench was one of his ideas, and he carried an eye wash with him which he poured into his eyes just before going to bat.

Most of the schemes of players to keep their "eyes in," as they say, are ridiculous, but there is no reason why a lot of players should not follow literally the advice of the bleacherites and "see an oculist." Any good oculist can devise a color scheme that will help the batter.—Hugh S. Fullerton in Washington Star.

Bardonia, Ky., Nov. 13.—The greatest gathering of members of the national fox hunters association ever assembled on a similar occasion are here for the big chase which began early today and will be followed by many festivities lasting the entire week. This is the annual meeting and most notable fox hunters of the country are here. Many women are present.

The directors met last night when the judges were selected and the entries for the denys were made. The chase started at 5:45 o'clock this morning from the Newman House with several hundred riding after the hounds. The weather is cold, clear and dry.

Cured of Bright's Disease. Mr. Robert O. Burke, Elmora, N. Y., writes: "Before I started to use Foley's Kidney Cure I had to get up from twelve to twenty times a night, and I was all bloated up with dropsy and my eyesight was so impaired I could scarcely see one of my family across the room. I had given up hope of living, when a friend recommended Foley's Kidney Cure. One 50 cent bottle worked wonders and before I had taken the third bottle the dropsy had gone as well as all other symptoms of Bright's disease." Wm. M. Melville, old postoffice corner.

COURT OPENED

With All Circuit Judges on Bench.

Bates Bigamy Case Was the First to be Argued

ONLY SIXTEEN CASES

For the Attention of the High Jurists at This Sitting.

Wife Wears of Following Husband and Seeks a Divorce.

The November term of the Allen county circuit court convened this morning at ten o'clock with judges, Caleb H. Norris, Elias E. Hurin and Michael Donnelly on the bench.

There are but sixteen cases on the docket at this sitting and the first of these, R. J. Straight vs. Mercy E.
Hoover was submitted on briefs. The second case taken up by the court was the bigamy case of the State vs. David H. Bates. The arguments were made orally by Mr. Welly for the state, and Mr. Klinger for the defense, while attorney A. S. Graham submitted a brief. The third case of the day was Theo. B. Tucker vs. the Ohio National bank, heard and submitted. The court may conclude its open session by tomorrow evening.

FOLLOWED HER HUSBAND

On Three Occasions and Made Up But Now She Rebels.

Stating that she was married to Elwood Thornburg, Sept. 15, 1897, Mrs.
Bernice Thornburg is seeking a divorce. She alleges gross neglect, claiming her husband on three different occasions deserted her for many months at a time, when she had later followed him, and lived as man and wife until another desertion would occur. He is alleged to have made his last desertion in 1905, and she now seeks a divorce and custody of her four minor children.

A DELIVERY WAGON

Runs Down and Severely Injures Daughter of Carl Boegel.

ONE LIMB IS BROKEN

And Severe Wounds About the Head Were Also Sustained.

Catherine, the seven year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Boegel, of north Pierce street, was the victim of a deplorable accident yesterday noon, just at the hour when the school teachers were dismissing their pupils.
The child was crossing the street at the intersection of North and Pierce streets, when she was run down by one of Dorsey's delivery wagons, which was in charge of a boy. The heavy wagon passed over the child's body, breaking her left leg near the hip and terribly bruising and cutting her about the head. The little one was tenderly carried to her home two blocks from the scene of the accident and her wounds were dressed by the family physician. No serious results are anticipated unless some unforeseen results set in.

SERIES OF LECTURES

To Aid the Local Membership in Raising Sufficient Funds

With Which to Properly Entertain the State Convention.

As a primary means of raising funds with which to properly entertain the state convention of their order, to be held here in 1908, the local divisions of the Ancient Order of Hibernians are making arrangements with the Hibernian Lecture Bureau to give a series of lectures in this city during the next year. The talent which the bureau offers is a splendid inducement for this class of entertainment, among the speakers in the list being such eminent speakers as Prof. J. C. Monaghan, of the bureau of commerce and labor at Washington, D. C., Rev. Dr. James H.
Cotter, of Ironton, O.; Hon. E. J. Slattery, of South Farmingham, Mass.; E.
T. McCrystal, of New York; Patrick J.
Huligan, editor of the National Hibernian, Washington, D. C.; and Miss Charlotte Malneaux Halloway, of New London, Conn.

Another feature which will soon attract attention and interest in the local branches of the Hibernians' order will be an organization, in this city, of a company of Hibernian Rifles, the uniform rank branch of the order.
At a meeting of the county board of the order in St. Rose parish hall Sunday, Dr. E. G. Wendock was re-elected to the office of county president; J. J. Riley was chosen vice president; James Donahue, treasurer; John J. Malloy, secretary, and Rev. A.
E. Manning, chaplain.

THE VAN WERT TEAM

And Two Teams From Bluff-

Tomorrow night will be a busy one at the Brunswick bowling alleys. Two teams from Bluffton will be here to decide supremacy on natural alleys and the Van Wert "Indians" will be here with a five-men team to play a return series against the representative Brunswick team.

A team from Plaquemine has written to Manager Cassidy, of the Brunswick alleys to arrange for a contest with the Brunswick team in this city. The date for this contest has not yet been set.

Last night there was a contest at the alleys between the Brunswick and Traction teams, the latter crew losing all three games of the series played. The scores were as follows:

NO MORE THEIR IDOL

Count Witte's Return to St.
Petersburg a Very Quiet Occasion.

NOT VERY TALKATIVE

Constitutional Democrats Want Him to Join Their Ranks.

By Associated Press.
St. Petersburg, Nov. 13.—The arrival of Count Witte here yesterday created scarcely a ripple on the surface of Russian politics. In contrast with his reception after his return from Portsmouth, when a throng gathered at the railroad station to greet him and the street in front of his house was blocked the following day by the carriages of high personages coming to pay their respects to the man of the hour, the count was met at the depot only by Baron Alde and a few reporters, and he received very few callers this morning.
Count Witte denied himself to reporters and declined to make a statement regarding his reported intention of resigning his seat in the council of the empire.

The constitutional democrats are eager to receive him in their ranks in case he decides to be a candidate.

It is authoritatively stated that measures for relieving the Jews of many of their disabilities will be published as temporary legislation before the convocation of parliament, as foreshadowed in Premier Stolypin's communication of September 6th.

The full extent of the reforms is still a matter for discussion by the cabinet, but they comprise permission for Jews to live in the country as well as in the city, and the removal of certain restriction placed on Jewish merchants and artisans in cities outside the pale. A full settlement of the Jewish problem is left to parliament, the government not being willing to venture deeply into the matter for fear of stirring up a storm of opposition.

POOR HEATING

In Richardson and McKinley Ward Buildings.

Few business matters came to the attention of the board of education and these were brought forward under the form of discussion, Mr. Stolzen-bach seeking to end the practice of traveling photographers visiting the school rooms and taking groups then retailing the photos to the pupils at extravagant charges. The heating facilities in the new McKinley and Richardson buildings were also discussed, good results not being obtained at present because of construction, though the gas supply is fully adequate. The attendance during the fall has been exceptionally good, while the enrollment in the schools has now reached 4,210 pupils.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to extend our thanks to all who assisted us, in any way, during the last sad rites of our father and grandfather, also to the friends for their beautiful floral offerings. We sincerely regret the newspaper error which announced the funeral as private. It was printed without our knowledge and was decidedly contrary to our wishes. All friends were more than welcome.

ANNUAL MEETING

Of the Members of Shawnee Country Club.

The annual meeting of the membership of Shawnee Country club was held at the club last evening at eight o'clock, when trustees were elected for the ensuing year.

But two changes were made in the list of trustees, otherwise the old board re-elected. There were only twenty-five or thirty members were present to participate in the election, which resulted in A. L. White and J.
D. S. Neely being chosen as new members of the board while J. C. Linneman and J. E. Chevront retired.

Following the business meeting dancing was enjoyed, only a few couples being present for this pleasure.
